Campus Safety Questions

Your “yes” to one or more of the following questions will not necessarily preclude your being admitted. However, your failure to provide complete, accurate and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

For the purpose of the following six questions, “crime” or “criminal charge” refers to any crime other than a traffic-related misdemeanor or an infraction. You must, however, include alcohol or drug offenses whether or not they are traffic related.

- 1 Have you been convicted of a crime? (yes, no)
- 2 Have you entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or have you received a deferred prosecution of prayer for judgment continued, to a criminal charge? (yes, no)
- 3 Have you otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime? (yes, no)
- 4 Do you have any criminal charges pending against you? (yes, no)
- 5 Have you ever been expelled, dismissed, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise subject to any disciplinary sanction by any school, college or university? (yes, no)
- 6 If you have ever served in the military, did you receive any type of discharge other than an honorable discharge? (yes, no, currently serving, never served)

If you answered “yes” to any of the six questions above, please explain the circumstances below.

You must promptly notify the Admissions Office in writing of any criminal charge, any disposition of a criminal charge, or any school, college, or university disciplinary action against you, or any type of military discharge other than an honorable discharge that occurs any time after you submit this application. Your failure to do so will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

Student Code of Conduct

Honor Code

The Code of Student Conduct provides that it shall be the responsibility of every student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to obey and support the enforcement of the Honor Code, which prohibits lying, cheating or stealing when these actions involve academic processes or University, student or academic personnel acting in an official capacity. It shall be the further responsibility of every student to abide by the Campus Code; namely to conduct oneself so as not to impair significantly the welfare or educational opportunities of others in the University community. As an applicant to The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, you are expected to conform to the spirit of the Code of Student Conduct throughout the application process. Upon enrollment in the University, all students, regardless of their status, agree to uphold the Code of Student Conduct.

Please read and sign the following statement:

I understand my failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information on this application will be grounds to deny or withdraw my admissions, or dismiss me after enrollment.
