

Don't stop achieving. Start growing.

You know you need to invest in yourself, but you don't want to slow down your career trajectory for a full-time MBA program. It's hard for you to envision how you could go back to school with your travel schedule and commitments at home.

Tailored for those who live both within and outside North Carolina, as well as those with demanding travel schedules, the Weekend MBA Program has minimal days out of office—and the lowest tuition—of any top-ranked EMBA program on the East Coast. The UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School experience is within your reach.

THE WEEKEND MBA

One weekend every three weeks over the 20-month program including one residential immersion weekend.

Blends immersive on-site courses and networking with tech-enhanced modules (<20% of class time).

Minimal days out of office—and the lowest tuition—of any top-ranked EMBA program on the East Coast (defined as Top 10 by most recent U.S. News & World Report rankings).

Ideal for business professionals who live both within and outside of North Carolina, as well as those who have a demanding travel schedule.

Diverse selection of electives from which you take 11, with an option to have an academic concentration.

PROGRAM LENGTH

February 2018 to October 2019 (20 months)

CLASS TIMES

All day Friday and Saturday every 3 weeks (plus a 3-day weekend every third class weekend), in addition to 1 immersion week over the 20-month program.

CLASSROOM FACILITIES

You will attend classes at the Rizzo Conference Center in Chapel Hill, and occasionally in the McColl Building on the UNC campus in Chapel Hill.

LEADERSHIP AND YOUR CAREER

You'll work through our process of learning, practice, feedback, and reflection to become a leader who can initiate change and drive business strategy within your organization. Leadership and professional development courses are integrated into the core curriculum, with additional leadership elective courses, seminars and activities, available.

All weekend students receive ongoing coaching from a certified executive coach throughout the program. You will meet one-on-one with your coach at least 6 times throughout the MBA experience to deep dive into your leadership development and thread together your learning experiences over time.

Career management support includes individual coaching, workshops and seminars, alumni networking, campus events, and access to online resources. The UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School's Career & Leadership Services team is dedicated to providing guidance customized to your career goals.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Weekend MBA alumni may return to take additional elective courses for a nominal fee.

COST

The cost for the Weekend MBA Program beginning February 2018 is $110,313*. Cost includes tuition, course materials, overnight accommodations, social events, and some meals for the 20-month program. See more details at emba.unc.edu/weekend.
