

Undergraduate Real Estate Minor

#RealWorldRealEstate

The real estate minor was developed to allow students who are not majoring in business the ability to study commercial real estate. It is part of the curriculum within the Kenan-Flagler Business School.

The real estate minor is comprised of the following classes:

- BUSI 408 Corporate Finance (3 cr)
- BUSI 585 Intro to Real Estate Studies (3 cr)
- BUSI 601 Real Estate Finance (1.5 cr)
- BUSI 603 Real Estate Development (1.5 cr)
- BUSI 604 Real Estate Capital Markets (1.5 cr)
- BUSI 605 Real Estate Capstone (3 cr)

Plus, one additional class from the list shown:

- PLAN 246 Cities of the Past, Present, & Future: Intro to Planning
- PLAN 247 Solving Urban Problems
- PLAN 317 Intro to Site Planning & Urban Design
- PLAN 375 Real Estate Development
- ECON 440 Analysis of Public Finance
- ECON 490 Special Topics
(with approval and based on topic)

Required Prerequisites

- Econ 101 Intro to Economics
- Busi 102 Intro to Financial Accounting
- A calculus class
(Stor 113, Math 152, or Math 231)
- Stor 155 Intro to Data Models & Inference

Students apply to real estate minor through UNC Kenan-Flagler's application process.

The Wood Center for Real Estate Studies offers additional resources for undergraduate students interested in pursuing a career in commercial real estate. Students can engage in career exploration and career coaching discussions, build additional technical skills through EXCEL and ARGUS trainings and access mock interview prep for internships and full-time jobs.

KENAN-FLAGLER BUSINESS SCHOOL
Leonard W. Wood Center for Real Estate Studies

For more information:
lynn_tocci@kenan-flagler.unc.edu

www.kenan-flagler.unc.edu/leonard-w-wood-center-for-real-estate-studies/