

Real Impact. Real ROI.

With a perennial Top 10 ranking, world-class faculty and thousands of alumni worldwide, the UNC Kenan-Flagler Executive MBA Programs provide unmatched ROI.

For students who can commute to Chapel Hill one evening a week and value frequent in-person interaction with fellow students and faculty members, the Evening MBA program provides unparalleled value and convenience. As part of a diverse cohort, students in this program develop connections with peers from every business sector in North Carolina.

THE EVENING MBA

Year 1: Core Courses: Only one evening a week (Monday) designed to strengthen your business fundamentals. Program kicks off in October with a residential weekend orientation. Toward the end of the core curriculum, students come together for their second weekend immersion.

Year 2: Electives: Customize your MBA by selecting 11 elective courses to meet your personal career and development goals. Evening MBA electives meet one to two nights per week. Year 2 ends with a final closing immersion weekend before graduation.

Classes meet in Chapel Hill at the McColl Building. Core Courses: Monday evenings (5:30-9:50pm). Elective Courses: one to two evenings per week.

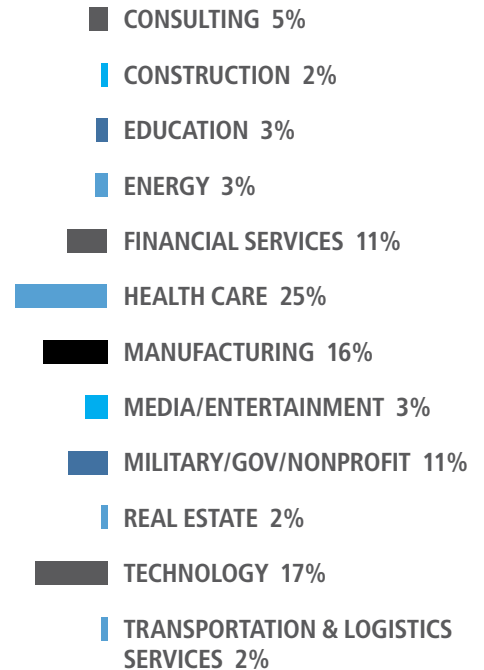

Gain additional experience in a key functional area, by choosing a concentration in Finance, Marketing, Entrepreneurship or Strategy & Leadership. Evening MBA students can also select electives from other UNC MBA program formats for flexibility and additional networking opportunities. Concentrations require electives in other program formats; these electives are offered for an additional fee.

Ideal for business professionals throughout North Carolina, as well as those with family or business travel commitments.

COHORT EXPERIENCE

Build strong relationships. The cohort-based structure of our Evening MBA means you'll take classes with the same classmates over the 24-month program. Learning alongside the same group of diverse, driven and engaged peers, you'll gain new perspective and tackle challenges together in ways that mimic real-life business collaborations. With the support of your study teams during core courses and electives, you may find that you learn as much from your classmates as you do from the program itself. The cohort experience of our Executive MBA programs results in a highly engaged alumni group and relationships you can rely on for the rest of your career.

LEADERSHIP AND YOUR CAREER

You'll benefit from UNC Kenan-Flagler's world-renowned process of learning, practice, feedback and reflection to further develop your skills as a leader. Leadership development is integrated into every part of the curriculum, and additional leadership courses, assessments, and development opportunities are available. You'll also have the option to earn the prestigious UNC Kenan-Flagler Leadership Initiative designation.

Our Career & Leadership Services team is dedicated specifically to Executive MBA students. Whether you are looking to accelerate advancement in your current company, change roles or industries or launch your own business, UNC Kenan-Flagler will help you succeed. The team will work with you one-on-one to define your vision for career success and then help you create, execute and assess your personalized action plan. You'll have access to extensive career services, including coaching, assessments, speakers, workshops, and unique job search tools to help you reach your career goals.

"Having an MBA from UNC Kenan-Flagler has strengthened my personal brand, set me apart from my peers, and helped me to develop meaningful business opportunities. I often leverage the skills, network, and experience I gained in the Executive MBA program to help my customers solve their own business challenges or drive new initiatives forward. At the end of the day, I bring greater value to my customers and that is a true differentiator."
