December 3, 2018

CLASS TIMES

All day Friday and Saturday every 3 weeks (plus a 3-day weekend every third class weekend), in addition to 1 weeklong orientation to begin the 20-month program.

COHORT

Class weekends allow students to immerse themselves in concentrated coursework and shared learning experiences with equally accomplished peers. Online coursework between class meetings ensures that residencies are as productive and dynamic as possible.

LEADERSHIP AND YOUR CAREER

You'll work through our process of learning, practice, feedback, and reflection to become a leader who can initiate change and drive business strategy within your organization. Leadership and professional development courses are integrated into the core curriculum, with additional leadership elective courses, seminars and activities, available.

All weekend students receive ongoing coaching from a certified executive coach throughout the program. You will meet one-on-one with your coach at least 6 times throughout the MBA experience to deep dive into your leadership development and thread together your learning experiences over time.

Career management support includes individual coaching, workshops and seminars, alumni networking, campus events, and access to online resources. The UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School's Career & Leadership Services team is dedicated to providing guidance customized to your career goals.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Weekend MBA alumni may return to take additional elective courses for a nominal fee.

COST

The cost for the Weekend MBA program beginning February 2019 is $115,829*. Cost includes tuition, course materials, overnight accommodations, social events, and some meals for the 20-month program. See more details at emba.unc.edu/weekend.

"As a CEO, you want to inspire people to be creative. Being a finance guy, that's not my first strength. This program gave me the skills to take things that previously felt left-handed and made them feel a bit more right-handed."
